Linda welcomed the ten visitors we had to this meeting. Each visitor introduced themselves and told us a little about their background. We are happy you came to our meeting and hope you will join our group and continue to come. Our yearly membership dues are $25. It is prorated now for $12.50. Three visitors did join our group. The visitors are:

Linda King
Denise Fleming
Debbie Miller
Jane Vineyard
Vicky Taber
Stacey Cimino
Annette Haga
Pam Smith
Kimberly Hall
Sondra Davison

Linda then introduced each of the Board Members, as noted above. She did say that nominations and voting for next year's Board Members will take place at a later time.

Linda described our way of fund raising through our Basket Auction event at each meeting. She detailed each of the items in all three baskets. The basket theme this month was Christmas in August. It was also mentioned that all items are from donations and if anyone has items to donate, it would be greatly appreciated. Each of the baskets was won with a $20 bid. Winners were: Pam Smith, Kimberly Hall, and Debbie Adams.

Anita Brozik, VP/Programs, discussed the October Shop Hop Bus trip. There are changes that are being made to the location stops. The shop in Chanute has closed. So, at this time it appears we will do lunch in Pawhuska, instead of dinner, and the last stop will be in Ponca City. Anita will review and finalize the stops and send out an updated itinerary. There are still seats open for the trip. We currently have 16 paid participants. The fee is $65 and Anita will accept payment until September 14th.

The December Member's Meeting will be a Christmas social – possibly a brunch/lunch at an offsite location.

2019 possible programs are – color theory, thread painting, speaker Brenda Shreve from The Red Barn in Barnsdall, OK, and a house tour.

Tricia Lehman spoke about Victory in the Valley charity quilts. She had brought approximately eight quilts that were ready to be quilted. The quilt packages include the top, batting, backing and binding. They make wonderful practice pieces and are very much appreciated by the recipients.

We then did show and share. Suzann Beverly showed a Victory in the Valley charity quilt she had done and Debbie Miller shared the history a beautiful quilt of hers.

Anita Brozik introduced our speaker for today; Shelley Pagliai from Prairie Moon Quilts. Shelley will be doing a trunk show during our meeting and then she will be doing a Workshop this afternoon called No Marking Allowed. The workshop is $45 and we have spots open if anyone would like to stay and join us. Ten members participated in the workshop.

Member's meeting was adjourned at noon.
