Membership – Jane Vineyard
Webmaster/Communications – Sondra Davison
Hospitality – JeanneMarie McLemore
Members at large- Terri Blaylock (absent) and Linda Argo

President Anita brought the meeting to order at 10:04 a.m. There were 35 members present. Welcome to three new members.

Vice President Robin passed lists for the October 27 shop hop. It will be a one-day trip. The cost will be $85.00. Need 35 participants for break even. She also discussed options for the December gift exchange.

Reminder that A-1 Sewing gives a 25% discount for any member during the meeting time.

The October meeting presenter will be Jackie Clark. The program is Quilt Judging and Appraisal.

Webmaster Sondra updated the web page and reminded the members we have public and private Facebook pages.

Secretary Joni brought two quilts from the Quilt of Valor group. The next QOV meeting is September 10. She will be the liaison for anyone who would like to volunteer to quilt a top.

Linda Argo and Sondra Davison gave a presentation about the group participation in the Common Threads quilt show. There were many items for sale, but all didn't sell, even at a significantly reduced price. Overall, there was good traffic through the booth and exposure for the group. Many thanks to Linda Argo for her time. The items left over were available for donation that will be directed to the guild treasury.

Treasurer Carolyn reported the treasury to have $4,342.42. There was a loss from the Common Threads quilt show of $13.59.

There were two raffle winners of A-1 Singer gift certificates.

Linda Argo and Dottie Evans volunteered for the nominating committee for next year's officers.

Show and share by Robin Newton, Joni Peterson, Karlissa Brewer, Dixie Kuehn, Donna Barrager, Karen Hammond, and Jane Vineyard.

Dawna mentioned that "Pro Stitch Sisters" meets at 1pm after the KLQ meetings. It's a monthly class for longarmers wanting to learn Pro Stitch.

Bethany Janssen, owner of the Sewing Center, gave the presentation "No Need to Re-invent the Color Wheel."

The next regular meeting will be October 15. Meeting adjourned by Anita at 12:15pm.

Respectfully submitted, Joni Peterson, Secretary
