President Robin Newton brought the meeting to order at 10:05 a.m and welcomed new members. There were 26 members present.

She extended a thank you to A1 Sewing for their continued support of the group and mentioned the 29% off current sale.

Robin reviewed the newsletter process. There were some issues with delivery of the newsletter through the Google drive and message system. She will continue to monitor.

Robin reviewed the Board action from the January meeting; the group agreed to continue the advertisement to PQG newsletter. They also discussed the process for outside requests of general meeting time. The decision was made to allow flyers and open up time after the meeting for a short time while the transition is made to the Prostichers group.

This meeting is for membership renewal.

Robin presented the proposed budget for 2024.

Robin reviewed that the Common Threads quilt show will be June 21 - 22. There will be a need for volunteers from the group to support the booth. The entry fee will not be waived. The plan is for three opportunity quilts to be raffled.

Linda Argo has experienced health issues. In her absences, Robin reviewed the planned programs for 2024.

Karen Hammond reported the treasury balance to be $2,955.93 for December and $2,807.02 for January.

Joni Peterson brought a quilt from Quilts of Valor that needs to be quilted.

Cheryl Stanberry discussed the survey for areas of interest that was presented to the membership during this meeting.

Many interesting quilts were presented during the show and share.

There were many interesting door prizes. This activity helps supplement the operations budget.

Dixie Kuehn, from the membership, was the presenter for an interesting program of using crosshatching for a quilt design.

Meeting adjourned by Robin at 12:25 p.m.. The next regular meeting will be April 20.
