Robin Newton welcomed everyone to a breakfast social at 9:00 am to kick off our annual membership renewal.

Robin began the meeting at 10:00 am with information for an upcoming bag class. Robin will teach the class on March 26 at A1 Sewing. This class will be limited to 6 participants. A sign up sheet was passed around with additional sign up for future classes. The cost of the class is $60.00 and she provided the list of supplies and items that need to be completed prior to the class.

We have six new members today.

Karen Hammond showed our balance of $3626.64 for the end of December 2024. We need to make $2,000 to cover expenses for our speakers for the year.

Robin asked Karen Hammond and Linda Dunker to talk about the bear/quilt project that Prairie Quilt Guild is doing, and showed some of the completed quilts and stuffed toys that are being provided to the Wichita Police Department. Linda is providing her projects to Augusta Department of Safety.

The Kansas City Quilt Show is being held June 12-14, 2025. The Prairie Quilt Guild is planning a bus trip for one of those days. They sent a survey as to which date to go, with the most votes deciding which day for the trip. The trip will be in the $90-100 range, which includes bus transportation, show entrance and a meal.

Robin Newton and Dea Corn shared bag projects

Cheryl Stanberry said the April 2025 meeting will be a trunk show with Tia Curtis.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30 pm.
